Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. As a volunteer at this school, it is important for you to understand that you have obligations under this law. You may not release any student educational records to anyone. Educational records include any personal or academic information about the student (grades, behavior, address, etc.). Should you receive a request from anyone to provide such information, please refer them to the School Leader, and let the School Leader know about the request.

VOLUNTEER'S STATEMENT:

I acknowledge that my services are provided on a purely volunteer basis, and that I do not expect or want any form of remuneration for those services. Additionally, I acknowledge that I have been provided with a copy of the School's Staff Handbook, and I affirm that I will uphold and support all of the rules and regulations of the School.

IMPORTANT – READ CAREFULLY

I hereby affirm that the statements made in this application are true in all respects. I understand that any volunteer assignment with The Leona Group may be terminated if I have misrepresented information submitted. Furthermore, I hereby authorize my employer to furnish any information concerning my personal character, habits or employment records and I hereby release my employer from liability on account of having furnished this information. I also understand I have the right to make a written request in a reasonable period of time to receive information about the nature and scope of an investigative consumer report if such is made.
